September was another very slow month for meeting updates. The website was 100% operational for the month, with no known downtime. One new problem is that the WordPress add-on we use to generate the downloadable meeting list, which appears on the front page, is broken. The add-on authors are aware of the problem and are working on a fix. This means that our meeting list on the front page still works, but the meeting list is about a month old. There haven't been many updates this past month so that's not a huge deal, but I will track their progress on the bug fix and deploy it as soon as it's fixed.

When meeting changes settle down a bit more, we should consider printing more meeting schedules. Until that time, we post a printable list online every few weeks with the latest updates.

In Service,

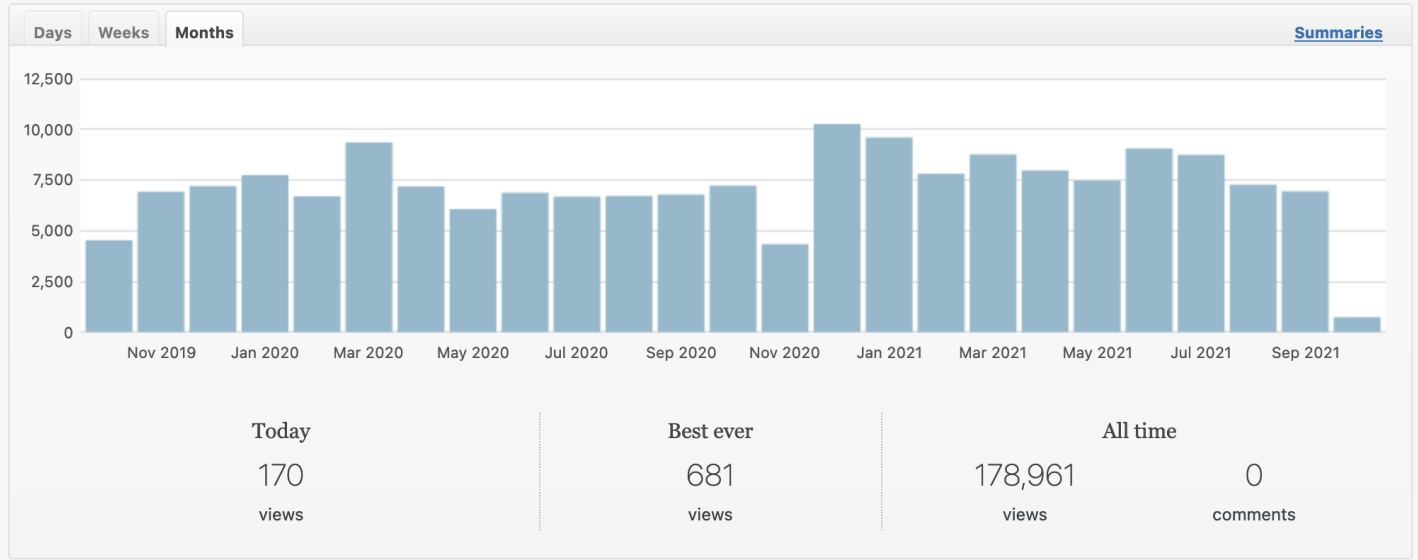

Marc E.
